The Mall Downside 1 Sl Grey

The Mall is the debut novel of S.L. Grey, the pseudonym of established South African writers Sarah Lotz and Louis Greenberg. Rhoda needs to get to Highgate Mall as soon as possible to score cocaine from her dealer.

Downside is a place where pretty much everything is literal and your fate is decided by Management, who've had their eye on Dan and Rhoda for some time. Truth be told, I don't find the SL Grey books all that scary. Unsettling, yes. Disturbing, definitely, but in all the right ways possible. But, they're highly entertaining if you're not too squeamish when it comes to dark fiction with a twist of body horror. The Downside books are the mutated brainchild of two of SA's established voices in horror – Sarah Lotz (author of the widely ...

The downside wards demonstrate a different view of health care. Let's just say that it's commodity based. With The Mall and now The Ward, S.L. Grey (Sarah Lotz and Louis Greenberg) are exploring a form of horror somewhere between Jackson/James and Smith mentioned above. Because I'm a librarian and think in categories, I decided the books dealt ...
