The Matlock paper is a good book about one man who has nothing to rely on except his own wits. Unlike some of Ludlum's other characters he has no specialist training, but is an academic. I think this adds something to the character as he achieves more than professionals do simply because he is not thinking like them. Recommended reading for its fast pace and good storyline. What would have made The Matlock Paper better? The story takes place in the 1980's but the book was released July 10, 2012. I'm not sure when it was written but it did not measure up to prior Ludlum standards. The story was so contrived that I had difficulty suspending my disbelief with many of the scenarios, especially the premise that ...
