The Sacred Bee in Ancient Times and Folklore is not a kiddie book. It is written in the old academic style of the previous century, filled with footnotes and acknowledgments to sources, quotations in foreign languages. I happen to like this style of writing. It is a valuable book because many of the author's sources were very close to the artefacts and texts that she mentions. Although the author may have understood the ancient meanings, according to her own cultural perceptions, which I ...
